Fourth Edition

1944

The good old "American Way" is the confident spirit of one hundred and thirty million God-fearing and freedom loving Americans.We have the spirit of a unified people living in a country where Life,Liberty,and the Pursuit of Hapiness aren't just empty phases in our lives.We live in a land where laws guarateeing Freedom of Speech and Worship,a fair trial,protection of property and peaceful Assembly,are made by free men.

Our American faith must give us the strength to accept restrictions cheerfully,to sacrifice willingly,to work harder, and to buy more war bonds and stamps than we think we really afford.Each day we prove this faith,we come closer to the glad reward of joyous home-comings.

As a part of this accomplishment we,the students of Dunlap High School are seeking to contribute all we can in helping to win the war and the peace that follows as well as helping to safeguard our "American Way Of Life".

Dedication

We respectly dedicate the 1944 "Reflector" to Mr. Roscoe V. Buckland for his three years of faithful service as principal and teacher of our school. He has influenced and helped us so greatly that we wish to take this means of expressing to him our deep appreciation and gratitude.

To: Mapine:-

Its a real pleasure to autograph this annual for you. It has also been a pleasure for the last few years to watch you gradually become the nice young lady that you are and a highly honored Senior.

Don't ever forget Mapine I know a lot more than I ever talk about. I know who you like and why you like him. I also know why you want to climb to the top in nursing. I also know a lot more things that you don't think I do, all of them are good or they could not be about you.

There are a lot of things that I could say but especially do I want to say that you have been a splendid young lady with high ideals. Keep often your goal. Whatever you do become a nurse; the best one ever. If you don't then you will disappoint Dudy, your family, & the Bartlett.

a friend,
Roscoe Buckles.

Dearly beloved Ruth,
You're a swell gal and I know you are going to make a grand nurse. Some caddie we were going to be lucky to have you as our mate. Wish you were here to kid Dr. Davis with a little hit for me.??
You're sweet Ruth and I'll never forget you.
Yours truly,
Ruth Chadwick Johnson.

Mapine,
I have enjoyed knowing you. You are a grand sport. You can be depended on.
Lots of luck,
Dorothy Arrill

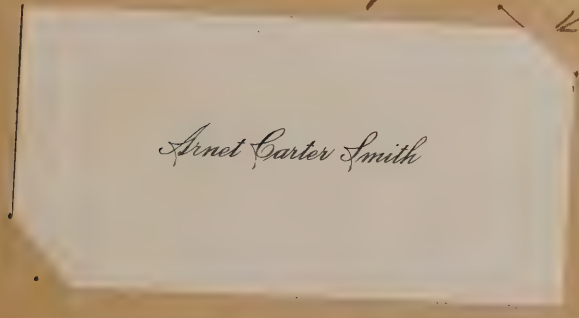
Here's to "mutt,"

It is with great interest that I stir my brain into action tonight to pay tribulation to the sweetest little bunch of sour grapes that ever lived or died. Four-score and seven years ago I come to this school innocent and ignorant and have remained that way down through the years, but there is one thing I do know, there will never be another "mutt" Not another with that wicked little grin and perfect technique any way and that outstanding love for a certain big-little Greek boy. Am I right mutt? Allow me to present to you my [illegible] and the best of everything throughout a long and happy life.

Pete Smith



I don't know you very well but as much as I have seen of you, you are alright good luck.

Dear Mutt,

I guess Dora thinks I must write this for you and put some love in it but I won't do it just yet. I don't think I've treated you just right, as Dora would preach to me, because I didn't speak to you. I thought you were mad. Do you remember the time when I started all the boys to saying, [redacted] here Mutt.' well I'm sorry of it because it made you mad enough to hate me and all the others. I only did it to make you mad. what a fool I was. I guess the first time I ever saw you was in the sixth grade back in 1938. Thats when I liked another girl. I've really enjoyed having you for a classmate, and Best girl friend, although Pete Smith almost beat my time. I certainly will miss you when Uncle Sam gets me but I'll try and write you often. well I hope the best of luck and best of everything to the sweetest Girl I ever knew and the sweetest A Guy could want.

With lots of love

Maxine: Thank you for making my year at Dunlap such a pleasant one. It has been a pleasure to know you and many are the good wishes I have for you. May you go on in your chosen profession to be the very best nurse you can be. I have great faith in your ability to do so. Remember this Maxine, never be afraid to step out into the deep water because it is there you will find the hand of God ready to lift you up and to give you strength and courage to go on. Eerie hoping you have a great deal of fun in Philadelphia and like it as much as I did. Do let me hear from you. — Sincerely,

Dearest Mutt,

This is just a little poem that expresses my feelings for you better than I, myself could put them into words:

Yesterday's thoughts like yesterday's friends
Are things to remember and yet never end.
Memories fond come creeping thru
Of happy hours I spent with you.
A changing world just can
Has made our friendship something rare.

Gee! Mutt its certainly going to be hard saying good bye to a swell bunch of kids as there is at Dunlap especially you and the rest of the Senior class.

I'll never forget the wonderful times we've had together espically since we've been in high school. Remember the Freshman and Sophomore party. That was our first real party at school I guess. When we look back on it and compare it with our other parties I guess we acted a we bit silly but never the less we had a perfectly wonderful time didn't we? That and all our school activities will always standout in my memory.

I am looking forward to that get together at your house. I think that when you become the (ancient kids isn't it) I do. No kidding Mutt I think you and Bonzie make a lovely couple. You take that as a hint if you wish.

Here here's to the dearest friend I have
and Will stay just as sweet as you are and I'm sure all your dreams
will come true.

Love,

Granby (Dot.) T

Dearest Mutt,

When I start to write in your book
And tell you in my small, yet sentimental way, what a swell pal and true friend you've been to me, a lump forms in my throat and tears dim my eyes. For I know this marks the end of our lovely times, conferences, etc. together for a long time. We are to part now, you to go your way, me to go mine. But though we may not be together in body, I hope we will always be together in spirit. Mutt, you've set your goal high, and knowing you as I do, I know you will attain that high goal.

Mutt, please try to understand as I tell you now, how much you mean to me. You are one girl in a million +
I love you very much. You are a sweet, lovely pal and although at our first acquaintance I didn't know or understand you very well, I have come to know that you will always be a big part of me.

I'll never forget how you've helped me over all the rough spots in my high-school years. You've helped me in more ways than you are actually aware of.

Patti, please don't ever forget the nite all of you spent at my home. I'll never forget it and always it will be fresh in my memory and I hope you think of it the same.

You've come a long way these past few years on your sunny disposition. It is fine now. Keep it and you will always attain the highest in life. All of life's rewards that you gain, you richly deserve.

Please don't ever forget me.

Love
Lora Murphy

Maxine,

It has been a pleasure having you as a classmate for the past four years. I can never forget your neat appearance and sunny disposition. I am sure you will be greatly missed around school but may you be as successful elsewhere as you have been at Dunlap. Here's wishing you the best of luck in the future and may happiness linger with you always. Please remain the same sweet girl as you are now. I hope you will make a successful nurse and also a successful Tea-Cent bride some day. Wherever you may go please don't forget me and write often.

A loving friend
Always,
Ruth Meadows
("Rufus")

To Maxine:

I doubt not in the slightest degree that you will be highly successful in the future, Maxine. Just keep on.

Dearest Matine,

Here's to a person I have long liked and admired. Your nice personality will always go with you, Matine, and we know you will go places. I know your dreams are not to be in vain for in you I see a splendid character with high ideals, and a true friend always.

It has been a real pleasure to have you as a classmate and remember I am always a friend.

Lovingly, a friend,
Isabell Hylton

Dearest Maxine,

It is a great pleasure indeed to autograph yaur annual, but I feel honored when you reserve one whole page for me. It would take more than a page for me to express my feelings toward you oh. Maxine, you have been a real pal, and one that I will never forget. Such loyal friendship as yaurs has been, is to be cherished among my life-long memories.

I admire your odd ways. It is true that you wear your hair in odd styles and do all sorts of queer things, but that is the reason I admire you. What other Dunlap girl shows the creative talent that you do? Who has the nerve to use so many sarastic remarks that you do? Why do you like opera's when a number of us haven't learned to appreciate them? There's a reason for it all - "brains", kid and you have plenty of them. These queer ideas of yaurs has caused me to love you just as I do my other girlfriends. (In this case you are near the top of my list). Please, don't change your way living after going to the city, Mutt. Keep those high ideals - and that pleasing look. Remember, I'm interested in you for more than one reason. Mainly, we need closer associations between the American and Greek races - and you are the only person who can accept the responsibility. Second, you have a brother that is too sweet for words (Period).

Maxine, the idea that we soon will be parting, breaks my heart. Lest you forget some of the outstanding events in our lives, I'll list a few of them: The Saturday night you spent with me, April 19th and who you sat beside, The Stonewall days, Callaghan Moons, the Tennessee Rambler, Uncle "Carney" at a Taffy-Pullin' Party, the books we read at Earnestine's, etc. After bringing these things back to mind, I realize more than ever that life can not be worthwhile without you, but I'll try.

Here's wishing you everything in the way of happiness and rewards that this world has to offer, you deserve it.

A friend until the end,

Rossie Drummond
